The Woman Who Cooked Her Husband

A black comedy suitable for adult (and broad minded) patrons. An exploration of jealousy, humility, deceit and betrayal.

Kenneth and Hilary have been married for nearly twenty years, when Kenneth finds himself in the arms of Laura. His little fling quickly becomes out of hand and his world and life become a spiral of lies and deceit. When Hilary invites Kenneth and Laura over for dinner, he accepts...unaware of the delicacies Hilary has on the menu.

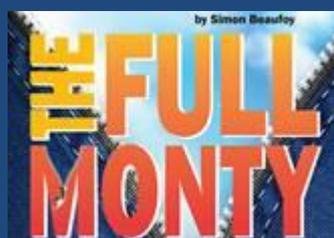

NB: Some coarse language and sexual references

Equally Divided

The play begins shortly after the funeral of Edit and Renata's mother.

Edith has sacrificed her life to nurse the bedridden woman, while Renata has spent her life doing what she pleases. When the contents of the will are made known, childhood rivalries recur in this astute and intelligent play.

From the President

It's an incredibly busy time of year at the theatre, as I'm sure it is for all of you! Jack and the Beanstalk is virtually sold out, so I hope you got your tickets in time. Audiences have been thoroughly enjoying themselves at our Christmas pantomime!

Some unfortunate news regarding our 2022 Season: Dusty will not be showing next year, but will instead be produced in 2023. To accommodate this change we've moved some dates around. Wanneroo Secondary College will also be using the stage in June, and we'll have some down time to complete some larger scale maintenance and upgrade projects.

The AGM will be on Wednesday 13th April at 7:30pm. Date for the Awards Night will be confirmed shortly.

Merry Christmas to you all and I hope 2022 will bring you peace, love and laughter.

Shelley
