

Jack in Review

Jack and the Beanstalk was a sell-out success and a fabulous way to end the year. You, our wonderful audiences, became very much a part of the pantomime with your hisses and boos, cheers and singing! The cast and crew had a ball, and the more enjoyment hitting our stage from the audience, the more fun we all had!

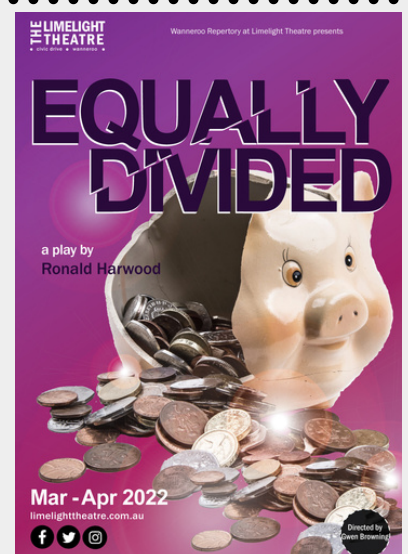

Our first production for 2022 could not be more different. Advertised as an "adult black comedy with some coarse language and sexual references". An excellent play, but not for the faint hearted. Directed by Barry Lefort, a very experienced director.

Running dates: 27th, 28th, 29th January, 3rd, 4th, 10th, 11th, 12th February. Matinee 5th February.

RIP Linda Boyd

Some sad news to report. On the 6th January a dozen of our members attended the funeral of one of our current Tuesday Task Force ladies who has been a member of the Limelight for many, many years. Linda was a lovely, cheerful woman who had been a part of the theatre in many aspects - particularly backstage and front of house. Sadly, whilst doing what she was passionate about, keeping the environment clean and free from rubbish she was swept into the traffic and lost her life. We will all miss her and her engaging smile and spontaneous hugs at Tuesday Task Force. RIP Linda.

The next production opens at the end of March and is brought to you by director Gwen Browning
